

The Revise Guide to Nailing Your Next Interview

Proper interview preparation is the key to securing your dream job. At Revise Recruitment, we've got your back. Here are our top tips to help you stand out:

Research, Research, Research

Dive deep into the company's background, values, and culture. Show genuine interest and align your knowledge with the role you're applying for.

Craft Your Answers

Prepare well-crafted responses to common interview questions. Highlight your skills, experiences, and achievements that make you the ideal candidate.

Prepare Your Stories

Think of practical examples from past experiences. Remember the STAR method (Situation, Task, Action, Result) to structure your responses effectively.

Understand the Role

Go through the job description thoroughly. This may seem obvious, but understanding the skills and experiences they are looking for and preparing yourself to discuss how your background aligns with these requirements will prepare you for the interviewer's questions.

Dress to Impress (Virtually and In Person)

Make a positive first impression by dressing professionally and appropriately for the interview. Your attire should align with the company's dress code and industry norms.

Punctuality Matters

Be on time! Plan your route in advance, allowing for unexpected delays. Arriving early shows your commitment and professionalism.

Check Your Tech

If it's a virtual interview, ensure you have a stable internet connection and test your audio and video settings beforehand. Familiarise yourself with the video conferencing platform being used.

Prepare Questions

Interviews are a two-way street. Prepare insightful questions to ask the interviewer. This demonstrates your interest and helps you evaluate if the role and organisation are a good fit for you.
